

Aymen Jamli

Arabophone / Francophone Journalist

DOB: 19/2/1981 - Email: aimen.jamli@gmail.com - Phone: +21694355366

Nationality: Tunisian Languages: Arabic (Native) / French (Fluent) / English (Intermediate)

Tunisia-based print journalist with well-honed field reporting skills, deep knowledge of Tunisian politics and society, and extensive newsroom experience.

Work Experience:

2018-Present: Tunisia Correspondent, Agence France-Presse (AFP)

- Covered Tunisian breaking news including the 2019 elections and the events of July 25, 2021, as part of a dynamic multi-national team.
- Produced regular reportage and features on social, economic and cultural topics.
- Gained skills in fact-checking and spotting fake news, including with INVID and UGC.
- Translated news articles from French into Arabic.
- Short-term missions on AFP's MENA editorial hub in Cyprus, editing world news.

2012-2017: Tunisia Correspondent, Anadolu Agency

- Covered Tunisian news, including extensive coverage of 2014 elections.
- Prepared political, social and cultural reports and humanitarian stories.
- Carried out interviews with major political figures.

2010-2012: Journalist, Nessma TV

- Covered political and economic events including terrorist attacks, presidential and parliamentary elections, summits and interviews with major political figures.

2008-2010: Journalist and Producer, Libya TV (Tripoli)

- Edited visual news reports and contributed to the preparation of talk shows.

2008-2010: Journalist and Producer, Nessma TV

- Edited and produced TV for cultural and social programmes.

Professional Training and Workshops

2019-2022: AFP

- Courses on research techniques, fact-checking, and rapid news-gathering

2011: Institute for War & Peace Reporting (IWPR)

- Training course on investigative journalism and television production

2011: “The Future of Media and Politics”

- International Forum in Brussels organised by European Union

2011: France 24 / Institute for War & Peace Reporting (IWPR)

- Training course on preparing news bulletins and covering elections

Education and Qualifications

2005: Institute of Journalism and Information Sciences in cooperation with Pavia University (Italy)

- Masters’ Degree in Digital Journalism

2004: Institute of Journalism and Information Sciences, Tunis

- Bachelors’ Degree in Communications